Strategic Communications Internship

Global Minnesota Summer Internships are 10-week $500 stipend opportunities that provide exposure into one of the largest World Affairs Councils in the United States. Throughout the internship, you will gain hands-on experience working in a nonprofit setting, expand your professional network, and develop a deeper understanding of our Strategic Communications area. Activities are based on business needs and do not involve project ownership. Internships are approximately 10 to 20 hours per week, with the majority of that time in the office on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 9:30 am and 3:30 pm, based on a mutually agreeable schedule.

About the internship:

Global Minnesota's Marketing & Communications Internship plays a critical role in telling the story of Global Minnesota and how we advance international understanding and engagement every day. The Strategic Communications Intern assists with marketing and promotion of Global Minnesota events and other program areas including Great Decisions Discussion Groups, K-12 Education, and Professional Exchanges.

Program features include:

- Hands-on experience working for a World Affairs Council nonprofit organization
- One assigned supervisor who will provide training and guidance
- Opportunity to join Global Minnesota staff meetings to gain deeper understanding of our operations
- Free admittance to selected public programs
- Complimentary Global Minnesota membership
- Networking opportunities
- Gaining both administrative and program-specific skills
- Optional stipend of $500 available

What the internship will look like:

- Drafting communications for event attendees and organizing outreach and reminder notifications
- Assists with social media promotion across Facebook, LinkedIn, & Instagram platforms
- Assisting in authoring content for the weekly E-News and Global Connect newsletters
- Refreshing program flyer content using Microsoft Publisher
- Authoring select communications including press releases and media advisories
- Supporting strategic communications project research and developing best practice guides
- Researching Global Minnesota historical information online and in hardcopy archives

What you bring to Global Minnesota:

- Must be pursuing an Associate's, Bachelor's, or Master's degree, or have recently graduated
- Nonprofit Management, Marketing, Global Studies, International Relations, Public Policy, Peace Studies, and Political Sciences or Area Studies majors preferred but not required
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English required
- Previous work and/or volunteering experience ideal
- Experience with WordPress, Canva, Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office software, and audio/visual technology a plus
- Social media experience including Facebook, LinkedIn, and Instagram preferred

Skills & mindset:

- Dependable, globally-minded students with an interest in learning and the ability to write well, pay attention to details, be part of a team, and respond to feedback would be a great fit for this opportunity.

Timeline of program:

- Start date: first two weeks of June
- Expected completion: sometime in August

Reports to: Marketing and Communications Manager

Important considerations:

- Able to work in-person at the Global Minnesota office 6 to 8 hours a week and up to 2 to 4 hours remotely
- Strong English language abilities required to support media content development and proof-reviews
- Access to equipment and shared-drive will be provided in-office only
- This is an unpaid internship with an optional $500 stipend available to those who successfully complete 10 weeks at about 10/hours week
- *If the intern is interested, additional hours may be added at the supervisor's discretion, with mutual agreement
- Interns contribute to ongoing initiatives aligned with organizational needs, working collaboratively with the team, rather than managing independent projects
- Availability to support events across different program areas is key to getting the most out of the internship experience
